WISCONSIN DELLS CENTER TO HOST 2008 NATIONAL JUNIOR COLLEGE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION VOLLEYBALL TOURNAMENT NOV. 20-22

WISCONSIN DELLS, Wis. (Nov. 14, 2008) – Chula Vista Resort and the Wisconsin Dells Center are proud to welcome the 2008 National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) Division II Women’s Volleyball National Tournament to Wisconsin Dells Nov. 20-22. This tournament will bring the 16 best Division II Junior College women’s volleyball teams in the nation to the Wisconsin Dells Center for three days of competition to crown one of these teams the 2008 NJCAA Division II Volleyball Champions.

Teams from North Carolina to Arizona will travel to Chula Vista Resort to compete at the Wisconsin Dells Center in the first sports national championship at any collegiate level to be held in the Wisconsin Dells. “The NJCAA Division II Volleyball National Tournament will help stabilize Wisconsin Dells as a natural site for collegiate championship sporting events where no team has a home advantage,” said Mike Kaminski president and CEO of Chula Vista Resort and the Wisconsin Dells Center.

All 16 teams will arrive on Wednesday, Nov. 19 with individual team practice sessions taking place throughout the day. Tournament matches begin Thursday, Nov. 20 at 9 a.m. and continue throughout the day Thursday through Saturday, with the national championship match scheduled for Saturday, Nov. 22 at 6:30 p.m.

“Three years ago when we first built the Dells Center one of the first events we wanted to secure was a collegiate championship. The NJCAA Division II Women’s Volleyball National Tournament was one of the first events we went after and we are excited to host this tournament for the next two years,” said Kaminski. The Wisconsin Dells Center and Chula Vista Resort expect 750 to 1,000 people to attend the national tournament that runs Nov. 20-22, 2008.
